

The Railway Technical Society of Australasia

Invite you to

National Freight Demands at High Altitude

Dr. Murray King
Murray King & Francis Small Consultancy Ltd

“The National Freight Demands Study and its implications for rail”

This significant resource for both the freight sector and the government will also assist with the planning and development of the New Zealand transport network.

Jeremy Noble
Senior Consultant: Interfleet Technology NZ Ltd

“Interfleet: Building the first luxury tourist train for China and Tibet”

5km above sea level the highest railway on earth with special enriched-oxygen and UV-protection systems crosses some of the most spectacular scenery in the world

The Wellesley Hotel, 2-8 Maginnity Street, Wellington

Tuesday February 24th 2009

5.00pm – 8.00pm

Presentations will begin at 5.30pm

The evening will conclude with refreshments

RSVP to Robert.Scofield@ontrack.govt.nz 04-495 3000 ext. 42247, by Monday 16th February Meeting arranged by the NZ RTSA Chapter Steering Group.

Enquiries to Andrew Hunt, 0-4-495 9087

www.rtsa.com

Meeting refreshments kindly sponsored by Interfleet Technology NZ Ltd.

